

edward johnson building
faculty of music
university of toronto

STEVEN DANN, VIOLIST

PATRICIA PARR, PIANIST

WALTER HALL, JANUARY 17, 1983 MONDAY AT 1 P.M.

STEVEN DANN, viola

Steven Dann began his musical studies with Harold Gomez in Vancouver. He graduated from the Faculty of Music, University of Toronto as a student of Lorand Fenyves and additional studies included working with Pickler in Australia, Guiranna in Sienna and Primrose in Banff. Upon graduation from the University of Toronto, he became principal violist in the National Arts Centre Orchestra where he remained for two years, leaving to assume the same position in the Zurich Tonhalle Orchestra. In 1981, he became principal violist of the Amsterdam Concertgebouw Orchestra. Dann has given master classes in Banff and has taught at the Chamber Music Institute in Waterloo. A few days before his Toronto appearances, he was featured soloist with the Concertgebouw Orchestra.

PATRICIA PARR, piano

Toronto born Patricia Parr performed with the Toronto Symphony, the Rochester Civic Orchestra and New York Pops Orchestra before she was ten. A double scholarship student at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, Miss Parr followed her studies there with two years of study with Rudolf Serkin. Since then she has performed in concert, on radio, television and with major orchestras throughout Canada and the United States. Her outstanding ability as a chamber music artist has become widely known with numerous appearances at the Marlboro Festival and with several international ensembles. As a Professor at the Faculty of Music she performs frequently with many of her colleagues.

PROGRAM

Sonata No. 3 in G minor BWV. 1029

J.S. Bach

Vivace

Adagio

Allegro

7 Variations on a theme from Mozart's
"Magic Flute"

Beethoven

Sonata in A minor (Arpeggione)

Schubert

Allegro moderato

Adagio

Allegretto

Sonata in F minor, Op. 120.

Brahms

Allegro appassionato

Andante un poco Adagio

Allegretto grazioso

Vivace

NEXT EVENT: Alumni Series - Robert Aitken, flute
January 18, 1983 at 8 p.m.